CRITERION I – CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 – Curriculum Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 – Institution has the mechanism for well planned curriculum delivery and documentation. Explain in 500 words

All the programmes taught in the college are designed by the University to which the college is affiliated and hence, all departments are required to implement the syllabus prescribed by Manonmaniam Sundaranar University. The time table committee headed by the principal and a senior faculty member draws up Academic Calendar - a detailed time table for academic and co-curricular courses such as theory, practical, tutorial, ICT, life-skill, value education and add-on classes thereby ensuring a balance between the different types of engagement a student is expected to participate in. Each department strives for effective curriculum delivery through a combination of time tested and innovative methods, that begin with an entry point assessment of student's aptitude and expectations relating to the course. A well-planned academic calendar, prepared in each department based on the college academic calendar helps the staff to accomplish their work within the available time frame, yet flexible enough to permit changes. The teaching plans are prepared on the basis of the syllabus and time table before the commencement of the semester. The apportioning of syllabus is done democratically through discussion with the faculty members in departmental meetings. The faculty take utmost care to complete the syllabus on time. The staff council meetings are arranged by the principal regularly to highlight the need and the progress of the departments with regard to teaching-learning. The college is well-equipped with smart classrooms and ICT facilities which are extensively used by teachers in day-to-day teaching to make delivery of curriculum attractive to students. Special lectures delivered by eminent scholars on topics related to curriculum further intensify students learning experience. Tutorials/projects, class tests and internal assessments comprise the formal evaluative process. Students are encouraged to meet faculty after the class hours for doubt clearing and curricular discussions. Extra hours are devoted for remedial coaching to lead the students face university examination successfully. IQAC regularly monitors the progress of teaching-learning, department meetings, parent-teachers meet, Alumnae meet and other forums and puts forth necessary alterations if needed. Feedbacks are also collected from the students. In addition to this, IQAC conducts regular internal and external audits to evaluate and provide valid suggestions to rectify the problems encounter in curriculum delivery. Study tours and Field visits are organised for students as a mode of experimental learning. Seminars, Unannounced Quiz are conducted to promote participative learning among the students.

2.5.2 – Reforms initiated on Continuous Internal Evaluation(CIE) system at the institutional level (250 words)

The college, being a non-autonomous institution, is affiliated to the Manonmaniam Sundaranar University (MSU) and strictly follows the CIE norms prescribed by them. The internal examination schedule is prepared based on the university academic calendar and is communicated to the students and faculty through College Academic calendar. There are certain reforms carried out for the betterment of CIE which includes

- Each department is liberalised to prepare their own internal schedule and invigilation duties based on the information provided in the academic calendar.
- Question Banks are prepared by the respective faculties well in advance and questions are selected from it covering the entire unit. To enable this from each units of the syllabus particulars numbers of questions are asked.
- The Question Paper and Scheme are prepared in advance and Scrutiny of the prepared question paper is carried out by Head of the Department and verified by Exam Co-ordinator to ensure quality of the Question paper.
- The Answer Scripts are evaluated within a week and the papers are distributed to the students for verification and discussion. The students are encouraged to discuss their queries with concerned staff.
- The students who face difficulty to attend the off-line exam has the freedom to appear online with prior permission from the Head of the Department. When a student abstains from writing the exams due to a valid and genuine reason, he/she is given another chance to write the exam with the consent and approval of the Head of the Department.
- The results were analysed and remedial action that need to be taken are discussed by the HOD and concerned faculty. Re-tests are also conducted for slow learners.
- The mentor discusses the result of the student to ensure continual learning and development of their children with parents.
- Suggestions for remedial measures are given if needed and monitoring it closely.

2.5.3 – Academic calendar prepared and adhered for conduct of Examination and other related matters (250 words)

The college ensures strict adherence of the time frame for CIE prescribed by the university. The institution prepares the academic calendar well in advance after collecting the required details regarding the academic activities planned by each Department individually for the year with the guidance of IQAC and is given to all the students and faculties during the beginning of the academic year. The comprehensive academic calendar is prepared by the Calendar committee consisting of the Principal and the Vice Principal and a few staff with the help of IQAC. Adhering to the college academic calendar, teaching faculties create action plan to ensure timely delivery of syllabus. The timeline created allows the staff to complete the given syllabus on time and the students will also have sufficient time before the examination to prepare for CIE. This helps to ensure effective conduct of CIE and achieve desired outcomes. It also helps the students to plan their academic and extracurricular activities. Three Internal Examinations are conducted as per the university instruction and the assignment are also given to the students to test their understanding on the subject. Apart from the Internal Examination, class test are conducted to prepare the students well for the university examination. The students are also encouraged to do mini projects as a part of their academic performance. The marks secured by the students in the tests are informed to the parents in the PTA meetings as scheduled to further improvement of the students.

7.1.7 – Initiatives taken by the institution to make the campus eco-friendly (at least five)

The institution focuses on clean environment and teaches students the importance of the healthy environment. To provide a congenial learning environment for the students, trees and gardens are tended, maintained and preserved over a long period of time. The institution has grown wide range of plants and trees on the campus. On important occasions cool and shady trees are planted by the Principal, the Secretary, the Governing Board Members, the VIPs, Chief Guests, Guests of Honor, and Resource Persons. The use of plastics is strictly restricted on the campus. Students are advised not to bring plastic carry bags and the policy of "Refuse, Reduce, and Reuse" is promoted in the institution. Solar lamps produce no pollution and they have a lower operating cost because renewable energy from the sun is free unlike fuel, and so the institution has fixed five solar lamps as a lighting system. Withered and dead leaves are collected and put into compost pits to produce vermicompost manure. Not wasting the rainwater, the elixir of life, through rainwater harvesting plants, the water that has fallen as rain is saved to increase the groundwater level and to preserve the magic liquid during the time of inadequacy of resources on the campus.

7.2 – Best Practices

7.2.1 – Describe at least two institutional best practices

Best Practice – I Title: Unpolluted, Eco-friendly Atmosphere Objectives: To focus on clean environment To make the students learn to conserve trees, plants and water To plant saplings and seedlings of various species on the premises. Context: Rivers dry up, wild life has become extinct, the climate is ruined and the land grows poorer and uglier every day. Nature is without a guardian. The institution is for the students and so the institution is very particular about an unpolluted, eco-friendly atmosphere. Being more concerned about the students' welfare, the institution has grown wide range of plants and trees on the campus Practice: The institution has distinctive pollution free, noiseless, calm and conducive atmosphere. It is a great boon for the students to study in this tranquil atmosphere. The institution has a big lush green garden and it has around two hundred species of plants including herbs, shrubs and big trees. Almost thirty varieties of medicinal plants which are helpful in the process of healing illness or infection are planted in the Herbal Garden. A number of trees are planted on campus and the trees provide shade for the students. During the free time the students sit down in the shade of the trees and they relax, enjoy and have lunch together. They breathe in fresh air. Morning and evening the gardeners water the plants, weeds are taken out from the ground, the longer branches of the trees and the hedges are pruned properly. The Eco Club that functions effectively in the institution focuses on clean environment. The Eco Club teaches students the importance of the healthy environment. Students plant saplings and seedlings of various species on the premises. They are taught to abolish the use of harmful plastic products including plastic plates, plastic cups, plastic water bottles and switch on eco-friendly materials. In the Department of Chemistry, students are doing practical adopting micro scale experiment using micro test tube, dropper, glass rod, tiles and lighter. This experiment has cut down the cost of chemicals and the usage of fuel. It also reduces the level of pollution and it is very safe for the students to do experiment. Rainwater is free from ions and so during the rainy season the rainwater is collected and preserved in a barrel and one long year this rainwater is used for laboratory experiments. There is a special underground drainage system in the Chemistry laboratory to dispose the effluent – liquid waste through sewage disposal. They are safely drained into a percolation pit constructed and covered with a lid. Use of disposable plastics and non-biodegradable products are prohibited inside the campus. Biodegradable wastes are disposed in the dumping ground and non-biodegradable wastes are recycled. Evidence of Success: . A congenial learning environment is provided for the students. Students throng to get admission in this institution which is beautifully situated in a quiet and peaceful spot. Students learn to conserve trees, plants, and water. Problems encountered: The institution is situated in the southern part of Thoothukudi District. Even though the total amount of rain that falls in this particular area is not sufficient, through borewell water is supplied to the trees and plants. Best Practice – II Title: Training the Untrained Students Objectives: To train the untrained students to perform in sports and games To teach sportsmanship to the students To make the sportsperson a disciplined citizen Context: The institution is situated in the rural area and most of the students are hailing from rural background and they are mostly first generation graduates. They are not well focused on sports and games. They are young and energetic, and they have sporting interests but they have not participated in major sporting events and they are not aware of the sporting strategies and techniques, and they are not well trained and they are not given coaching to improve their skill. The institution proves that sports students have a great future ahead of them. Practice: The institution has completed more than fifty years of valuable educational service to the youth of this rural area. It has made great progress since the year of its inception 1967. It has a reputation for high standards of discipline. The institution takes strenuous efforts to bring out and enhance the hidden skills and to inculcate human values, morals and ethics in the minds of the students. According to the motto of our college, Arise and Shine, many of the students have excelled in their studies and sports and games, and upgraded to IPS level and they are working in government and private sectors and in foreign countries. Ample opportunities are provided for the students to play various games and to participate in athletics. Students who excel in sports are selected and given regular training to participate in the inter-collegiate sports competitions. Sports students are encouraged to avail themselves of the full range of facilities. Women students are also encouraged to participate in sports and games. Skilled students are given regular coaching throughout the year. Special physical fitness training is given to the students who appear for the uniform service examination. Special physical fitness training and guidance are given to the students who are willing to join Physical Education degree courses. Sports and games discipline the students. It teaches not only how to play a particular game but also it teaches good discipline. Every morning 6.30 to 8.30 the students are asked to come for the training compulsorily. The training session is a tough time for the players. The training students are asked to run slowly and steadily, sprint, walk with long steps, making great strides,, jump up and down, pace up and down, pad, stamp, stroll, and trudge. Students who are involved in sports activities are expected to be present in the training field at the right time. They are expected to be prompt when attending the training. Punctuality and promptness are the most essential requirements for a sportsman. Sports train the mind and heart of the sportsman. If they are in the wrong, they will be guided and monitored and till they mend their ways they will be persuaded and watched. They will be on the watch till they become refined citizens. Evidence of Success: . Students participate in a range of sporting activities. Students learn sportsmanship. Sportspersons become good citizens. Problems encountered: After completing the high school education, when the students enter into the institution, they are not good at sports and they do not have sportsmanlike attitude. The institution makes concerted efforts to shape and develop them as good sportspersons.

Higher Education for Rural Women The institution is situated in the rural area. Most of the students are hailing from rural background and they are mostly first generation graduates. In the beginning boys were only admitted but later girls were also allowed to enter into the prestigious institution to elevate their life style. At present girls outnumber boys by two to one. To uplift the status of the rural women, education is given more priority. Higher education plays a key role in the empowerment of women. The highly educated woman plays a significant role in building the nation. Educate a woman, you educate a family. Thus higher education embodies and embraces that much value and importance. Higher education is very important for every rural girl child. To stand on her own feet and to get well settled, a woman needs good education. So our institution gives more importance for female education. The institution offers the best and efficient higher education to the rural poor women. Eventually women's education has undergone a reformation and rejuvenation tremendously.

The sole responsibility of the institution is to make the girl students brighter, bolder and braver to face the difficult, dangerous and painful situation in the near future. Eminent and excellent speakers are invited to deliver inspirational speeches to the girl students and to give the desire and enthusiasm to achieve great things in their lives and to become brave and confident, and unafraid to say what they feel and to take risks in their lives. The mentor has a special role to play in moulding the girl students' character.

They pay attention to the girl students' studies and health. They meet the students at regular intervals and they monitor their progress, attendance and behaviour. They strain every nerve and make great efforts to carry the rural girl students to the unimaginable heights. Scholarships and various fee concessions are awarded to deserving girl students to encourage and appreciate their academic excellence. It is a great motivation for the rural girls to study more efficiently and to uplift their family status. For example

E.V.R.Nagammai Scheme - free education for the girl students studying in P.G.Course. On the Freshers' Day, the Principal gives counsel to the girls and stresses the value of high moral code and the girl students are invited to air their grievances to the Principal at any time. Counselling programmes, career guidance programmes, skill development programmes and special programmes are arranged to refresh and give new strength to the girl students. Girl students learn new skills and acquire new knowledge through these skilful and eventful programmes. The institution conducts Spoken English Courses for the girl students to enable them to face interview, participate in group discussions and communicate with confidence and conviction. The Literary Club paves the way for the young aspiring girl students to make a display of their knowledge and they are encouraged to create and write original works. The institution gives the girls basic training in computer and they are being
